

Appendix 1 to the Rules of Bidder Selection in KGHM Polska Miedź S.A.

Dear Contractor,

KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. (KGHM) has undertaken to comply with the principles of socially responsible business, as well as compliance with ethical, environmental and organizational standards necessary to carry out the due diligence process in the supply chain in accordance with the adopted Responsible Supply Chain Policy in the KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Group, available at the website address: <https://kgm.com/pl/biznes/produkty/odpowiedzialny-lancuch-dostaw>.

In order to ensure the highest possible standards of sourcing materials from conflict-affected and high-risk areas, KGHM has adopted a risk-based approach. It enables the identification of high-risk business relationships based on criteria consistent with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas, as well as with the criteria under the Joint Due Diligence Standard implemented in the KGHM's Smelter Divisions (The Copper Mark, International Lead Association, International Zinc Association, Nickel Institute and Responsible Minerals Initiative).

KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Corporate Group adheres to the highest production standards, as well as ethics of business and business activities. We follow these protocols in the whole value creation chain, which is reflected in the Code of Ethics for KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Corporate Group. In order to comply with the United Nations Global Compact Initiative, KGHM confirm their commitment to compliance with the basic principles of human rights, labour standards, environmental protection and corruption counteracting, which are reflected in the Human Rights Policy adopted by KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Moreover, we also support initiatives for responsible mining of minerals from areas affected by armed conflicts and we have made Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) a part of our long-term strategy.

KGHM understands that organisations co-operating with us differ significantly when it comes to size, time of presence on the market, organisational complexity and the level of maturity of the management process. However, we are of the opinion that a set of principles, values and practices that are universal values exists. It is important that these principles are respected by all parties, both KGHM and the Contractors, because such approach allows full implementation of the principles and commitment to them.

With respect to the management of the risk of serious fraud in supply chains, please be advised that our cooperation with Contractors shall be immediately suspended or terminated, should we determine that there is a significant, apparent risk of serious fraud involving them or their suppliers in the areas specified below.
